

How can I get involved in the B11 Standards development process?

There are two levels of participation: at the writing subcommittee level (each B11 document has its own writing subcommittee) and at the recognized consensus body level (the B11 Standards Development Committee). For more information on either/both of these levels, go to the How To Participate tab at www.b11standards.org.